Art. 1

The scientific-artistic advisory board is an advisory body of the Association of Friends of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Salzburg (VdFKJP).

Art. 2

The task of the scientific-artistic advisory board is to support the Salzburg Institute for Arts in Medicine (SIAM, sub-organization of the VdFKJP) by stimulating research, exchanging work results and promoting publications on a scientific basis. Furthermore, the scientific-artistic advisory board is to support the artistic and scientific work of the SIAM through contacts with domestic and foreign institutions with related objectives in accordance with the statutes.

Art. 3

The Scientific and Artistic Advisory Board has to meet at least twice a year to exchange ideas with the researchers of the SIAM. The chairperson, in coordination with the heads of SIAM, invites members to attend. Members undertake to attend a meeting of the Advisory Board at least once a year.

Art. 4

The members of the scientific-artistic advisory board are appointed by the board of the association and appointed for a period of five years. Scientists and artists as well as physicians who are active in the field of art, medicine and/or research can be nominated as members of the advisory board.

Art. 5

The scientific-artistic advisory board is constituted by the appointment of at least five members for the board. The scientific-artistic advisory board nominates a chairperson at its constituent meeting. The appointment of further members is carried out by the board of the association on suggestion of the advisory board.

Art. 6

The members of the scientific and artistic advisory board can resign their membership at any time by written declaration to the chairman. The chairman of the scientific-artistic advisory board is to be invited to participate in all executive board meetings and the general assembly of the VdFKJP in an advisory role.

Art. 7

The funds required for the work of the scientific-artistic advisory board (e.g. online conference tool, meeting rooms) must be provided by the VdFKJP and presented in the budget.
